We are privileged to have with us:

Trish and Bob Schwenkler - Asea Triple Diamonds

Bob and Trish live in, and love, beautiful Boise, Idaho. They enjoy the great outdoors, water sports and cross-country skiing. Trish likes to say that she has a “PHD” (Public High School Diploma) and has attended the prestigious “School of hard knocks”. They appreciate the transformational aspect of network marketing and being authentically aligned with everything Asea stands for. Trish and Bob have been full-time network marketers since 1993. Bob takes care of all the technology necessary to keep the couple’s thriving business moving forward.

Michael Stern - Asea Triple Diamond

Michael has been in the network marketing industry for over 30 years. He has successfully built distributor organisations in several companies. He has also been an advisor as well as a corporate executive in the network marketing industry. Michael holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Biology from UMBC and has worked in scientific and analytical research for the prestigious John Hopkins University, international chemical giants WR Grace and Cypress Industrial Minerals. His primary areas of research were in molecular biology, biochemistry, organic and analytical chemistry. Michael spent 15 years researching alternative and energetic health related products and technology as well as running two companies focused on delivering these types of products to the alternative and integrated health care community

James Pack - Founder and Vice-Chairman of the Board

James Pack is a highly capable executive who brings years of management experience to ASEA. While in his 40s, he retired from an extremely successful career in the telecommunications industry. Never one to relax, James followed that retirement with a second successful career in real estate development before meeting Verdis Norton and co-founding ASEA. James' organisational and operational expertise blends perfectly with Verdis' strategic leadership to deliver a consistently high standard in corporate achievement.
